

Tredure¹.

xv.

Take Brede and grate it. make a lyre^m of rawe ayren and do þto Safron and powdo^v douce. and lye it upⁿ w gode broth. and make it as a Cawdel. and do þto a lytel vions.

Monchelet^o.

xvi.

Take Veel op⁹ Moton and smite it to gobett⁹ seeþ it i gode broth. cast þto erbes yhewe^p gode wyne. and a qñtite of Oynons mynced. Powdo^v fort and Safron. and alye it w ayren and vions. but lat not seeþ aft.

Bukkenade⁹.

xvii.

Take Henn⁹ op⁹ Conyng⁹ op⁹ Veel op⁹ op⁹ Fleish a hewe hem to gobett waifche it and hit well^t. grynde

¹ Tredure. A Cawdle; but quære the etymon. The French tres dure does not seem to answer.

^m lyre. Mixture.

ⁿ lye it up. Mix it.

^o Monchelet. Monchelet, Contents.

^p y hewe. Shred.

⁹ Bukkenade. Vide N^o 118. qu.

^r Hennes; including, I suppose, chicken and pullets.

^s Conynges. Coneyes, Rabbits.

^t hit well. This makes no sense, unless bit signifies smite or beat.