

Ryse.

Take ryse and wasshe and grynde hem smalle,
 Temper hom with almonde mylke pou schalle;
 Drauþe hom thorowghe a streynour clene,
 Boyle hom and seson hom with sugur schene;
 Fors hit with fryude almondes gode,
 Þen hase pou done, syr, by þo rode.

Kaudel Ferry.

Take almondes unblanchyd, so have þou cele,
 And wasshe hom fayre and grynd hom wele;
 Temper hom up with wyne so clene,
 And drauþe hom þorowgh a canvas shene;
 In pot pou coloure hit with safron,
 And lye hit up with Amydone,
 Or with floure of ryse so fre;
 Ryþt thykke loke pou þat be;
 Seson hit with sugur grete plenté,
 Florysshe hit with maces, I tel þe.

For to make a rape.

Take raysyns of corauns þerto,
 And wyte wyne pou take also;
 Sethe þenne oper raysyns grete
 In rede wyne, and boyle a lytul with hete;
 Do opon a broche, rost hom bydene
 A lytel, and take hom fayre and clene
 And bray hom in a mortar smalle,
 A crust of brede pou bray with alle.
 Put alle in þe pot with grythe,
 Þo raysyns of corauns, þo swete wyne with,
 A lytul vengur, and poudere take þo
 Of clowes, maces and quibibis¹ to;

¹ Cubebs.