

The CONTENTS.

- IX. Of the Country or private Way of Brewing
- X. Of the Nature and Use of the Hop
- XI. Of Boiling Malt Liquors
- XII. Of Foxing or Tainting Malt Liquors
- XIII. Of Fermenting and working of Beers and Ales; and the pernicious Practice of beating in the Yeast detected
- XIV. Of Artificial Lees for feeding, fining and preserving Beers and Ales.
- XV. Of several pernicious Ingredients put into Malt Liquors to increase their Strength
-
- XVI. Of the Cellar or Repository for keeping Beers and Ales. H 2
- XVII. Of Cleaning and Sweetening of Casks
- XVIII. Of Bunging Casks and Carrying Malt Liquors to some Distance
- XIX. Of the Strength and Age of Malt Liquors
- XX. Of the Pleasure and Profit of private Brewing, and the Charge of buying Malt Liquors
- XXI. A Philosophical Account of Brewing strong October Beer.