Seruants out of Seruice, are going to the Citie to looke for new.

Thomas Ravenscroft (1590 - 1633)
Melismata, 1611, no. 6

Critical notes:

I don't see any musical reasons for the change of tempus in the original parts in the second section of the song and have chosen to transcribe both sections into 6/4 meter. Note values have been halved in the second section.
