TO THE RIGHT HONOrable, and my very good Lord and Maister,

Sir WILLIAM CECIL Knight, Lord Burghley, and sonne and heire apparant vnto the Earle of Exceter.

Here present vnto your Lordships view an Account of th' expence of many houres, which in your seruice, and to mine owne benefitt might haue bene otherwise imploied: for sloth, howsoeuer, had not consumed them; somewhat I must haue done the whilest; nor could I haue bestowed them on a Worke of lesse vse for your Lordship, the French being alreadie so well vnderstood by you, and all yours. In which regard, as I am particularly bound to acknowledge your Lordships goodnesse, bearing with my humor to follow, and allowing me time to finish, it; so haue all they, to whom it shall proue of any worth, iust cause to honour in your Lordship that goodnesse, continued a long time vnto their, and the common good. No priuat consideration was fit to make your Lordship often to dispence with th' ordinarie attendance of an ordinarie seruant. But this is one of the least of your Lordships respects to the Publicke; and I would be loath to ingage your Iudgement, or Honour, on the successe of so meane a Peece. My desires haue aimed at more substantiall markes; but mine eyes failed them, and forced me to spend much of their vigour on this Bundle of words; which though it may be vnworthie of your Lordships great patience, and perhaps ill sorted to the expectation of others, yet is it the best I can at this time make it, and were, how perfect soeuer, no more then due to your Lordship, to whom I owe, for what I haue bene many yeres, whatsoever I am now, or looke to be hereafter.

Your Lordships

most bounden seruant,

Randle Cotgrave.

Au favorable Lecteur François.

Lecteur, l'Auteur de ce livre (Gentilhomme Anglois, à qui son propre Pays & sur tout, le nostre ont vne obligation particuliere, qu'ilz ont à peu d'autres) apres avoir peniblement veillé & travaillé par plusieurs ans, sur cet oeuvre. non moins, certes, ingrat que laborieuz; En fin est contraint de le laisser partir de ses mains, plutot vaincu de l'importunité de ses Amis, & de la neccsité que le Public en a, que satisfait en son ame de son propre ouvrage. Et t'assure que si on l'eut voulu croire, il fût encore apres à se tourmenter, pour trouver la signification de telz mots, qui, possible, ne seront jamais plus ouyz en ce monde, (quoy que luz) & dont, ie croy, il n'y a personne qui ait ouy parler depuis cent ans, que luy; tant sa curiosité a été grande & exacte à lire toute sorte de livres, vieuz & nouveauz, & de tous noz dialectes. A cette cause, peur, possible, qu'ayant égard à ce que tu voys, non à ce que tu ne voys pas, tu l'accuses plutot de ce qu'il a dit, que de ce qu'il a été contraint de laisser; qui toutefois seroit vn tresor inestimable, s'il eût pu trouver, ou pardeça, ou en France mesmes (où il a été si curieuz d'envoyer expres) qui l'eut pu, ou voulu refoudre de ses doutes; Il te supplie bien fort, si tu trouves icy quelques mots qui te sonnent mal auz oreilles, ou mesme qui n'y ayent encore jamais sonné, de croire, qu'ilz ne sont point de son invention, mais recueilliz de la multitude & diversité de noz Auteurs, que possible tu n'auras pas encore luz, & qui, tant bons que mauvais, defirent tous d'estre entenduz. Il pouvoit bien citer le nom, le livre, la page, & le passage; mais ce n'eut plus icy été vn Dictionnaire, ains vn Labirinte. Ceuz qui ne les sauront pas, les apprendront; Ceuz qui les sauront, jugeront bien que l'ignorance, possible, d'un seul mot, soit substancial, metaforique, inusité, ou tiré de la varieté des Ars, peut souvent obscurcir tout vn sens, & rendre barbares les conceptions les plus gentilles. Permis à qui voudra d'en vser, ou de les laisser; Bien entendu, toutefois, que ce ne seroit pas le pis qui nous pût arriver, que de remettre suz, certains mots sur-annez, que nous avons mieuz aimé laisser perdre, quoy que trespropres & significatifs; Et autres de notre propre cru, bien que de divers terroir, allans plutot mandier chez les Etrangers pour nous exprimer, ou bien nous taisans du tout, ou parlans par vn long contournement de paroles, que d'ouvrir vn peu la bouche pour en prononcer quelques vns qui sembloyent trop reveches pour la douceur du palais de noz Damoiselles, ou grater l'oreille delicate de Messieurs noz Courtisans de ce tems-cy. Quant auz fautes de l'Impression, l'Auteur ne les peut totalement prendre sur foy, ne niant pas qu'il n'en soit eschapé assez, comme aussi possible en quelques endroits, quelque impropre interpretation; esperant bien toutefois, que les vnes ny les autres ne seront pas si grandes que ta courtoisie n'y puisse bien supplier. A tant, Il recomande son oeuvre à ta bonne reception, & moy ie demeure

Ton tresaffectionné Patriote,

To the Reader.

Humanum est errare, say the Latinists, to whom verie many (too much men in their much erring) have beene exceedingly beholden for an excuse upon iust accusations. I (who am no God, nor Angell) either to prevent, or to profit, others, am willing ynough to accuse my selfe; and therefore have caused such overslips as have yet occurred to mine eye or understanding, to be placed neere the forehead of this Verball creature; as lesse afraid so to disgrace it, then to de- cease those that shall harbor it; and chusing rather to publish mine owne errors, then to be guiltie of other mens; I will not presume to affirme that these be all, no more then I will acknowledge, or give any account for, such, as the malicious and ignorant shall captiously pinch, or fondly point, at: but my hope is, that as I have dealt freely in the dis'couerie of these, so all that be iudicious will use me friendly in their corrections of the rest.

on it a particular letter, denoting the place wherein it was made; now, that which is coined in Paris hath on it an A, and is, commonly, of the best mettall.)

A. The third person singular of the verbe Avoir, signifies (of it selfe) hath, holdeth, possesseth, enioieth; as, Allez a qui bon credit a: also (when it hath the local Adverb y before it) is; as, Allez y a si trop n'y a: But when it precedes a Participle in the preterperfect Tense of another verbe, it is restrained unto the first signification; hath; as, il a gaigne ce qu'il a peu: In all which (and otherwise, onely as it is a letter) it is written without Accent.
