

hem ī colde waī til the hullēs go off, cast hem in a pot and couē þ̄ no breth^d go out. and boile hem right wel. and cast þ̄inne gode mylke of almand^o and a ptyc of flo^o of Rys wiþ powdō^o gyng^o safrōn. and salt.

Chych^o c.

xx.

III. XII.

Take chich^o and wry hem^f ī ashes all nyȝt, oþ̄ lay hem in hoot aymers^s, at morrowe^h, waifshe hem in clene waī and do hem oūe the fire with clene waī. seep hē up and do þ̄to oyle, garlec, hole safrōn. powdō^o fort and salt, seep it and messe it forth.

Frencheⁱ.

xx.

III. XIII.

Take and seep white pefon and take oute þ̄ perrey^k & pboile erbis & hewe hē grete & cast hē ī a pot w the perrey pulle oynōns & seep hē hole wel ī waī & do hē to þ̄ Perrey w oile & salt, colō it w safrōn & messe it and cast þ̄on powdō^o douce.

^d breth. Breath, air, steam. Mf. Ed. N^o 2.

^c Chyches. Vicia, vetches. In Fr. Chiches.

^f wry hem. Dry hem, or cover hem. Chaucer, v. wrey.

^s Aymers. Embers; of which it is evidently a corruption.

^h at morrowe. Next Morning.

ⁱ Frenche. Contents have it more fully, Frenche Owtes. V. ad N^o 6.

^k Perrey. Pulp. V. ad N^o 70.