One follow me merrily my mates, lets all agree and make no faults, Take heed of time, tune and care, time, tune and care, And then without all doubt, wee need not feare to sing this catch throughout: Malkin was a country maid, a country maid tricke and trim, tricke and trim as she might be, she would needes to the Court shee said to sell milke and firmenty, hey hoe, haue with you now
