

XXVI. For to make cryppys^a.

Nym flour and wytys of eyryn figur other hony and sweyng togedere and mak a batour nym wyte grees and do yt in a posnet and cast the batur thereyn and stury to thou have many^r and tak hem up and messe hem wyth the frutours and ferve forthe.

XXVII. For to make Berandyles^s.

Nym Hennys and seth hem wyth god Buf and wan hi ben fodyn nym the Hennyn and do away the bonys and bray final yn a mortar and temper yt wyth the broth and seth yt thorw a culdore and cast therto powder of gyngeny^r and figur and graynys of pomis gernatys^t and boyle yt and dresse yt in dysches and cast above clowys gylofres^u and maces and god powder^x ferve yt forthe.

XXVIII. For to make capons in casselys.

Nym caponys and schald hem nym a penne and opyn the skyn at the hevyd^y and blowe hem tyl the skyn ryse from the fleshe and do of the skyn al hole

^a Meaning, crisps. V. Gloss.

^r It will run into lumps, I suppose.

^t Quære the meaning.

^u Pomegranates. V. N^o 39.

^y Not clove-gilliflowers, but leaves. See N^o 30, 31, 40.

^x See N^o 17, note c.

^y Head. Sax. heopod and hevod, hence our Head.