

after do hem in a feyr towayl for to drie and wan that they be drye bray hem wel in a mortar al to flowr' and afterward tak two partyis and do the half in a pot and that other half in another pot and colour that on wyth the safrōn and lat that other be wyt and lat yt boyle tyl it be thykke and do ther'to a god party of sugur and after dresse yt in tve dischis and loke that thou have Almandys boylid in water and in safrōn and in wyn and after frie hem and set hem upon the fyre sethith mete^y and strew ther'on sugur that yt be wel ycolouryt^z and serve yt forth.

XXII. For to make a Potage Feneboiles.

Tak wite benes and seth hem in water and bray the benys in a mortar al to nozt and lat them sethe in almande mylk and do ther'in wyn and hony and seth^a reysons in wyn and do ther'to and after dresse yt forth.

XXIII. For to make Tartys in Applis.

Tak gode Applys and gode Spycis and Figys and reysons and Perys and wan they are wel ybrayed colourd^b wyth Safrōn wel and do yt in a cofyn and do yt forth to bake wel.

^y Seth it mete, i. e. seeth it properly.

^z Coloured. See N^o 28. below.

^a i. e. Seeth.

^b Perhaps, coloure.