

Be sleȝe and powre in water penne
 To myd þo pot, as I the kenne;
 Opone þo bruyſ poure hit withinne,
 And cover hit þat no hete oute wynne,
 And tendurly seyth hit þou do may,
 Salt hit, serve hit, as I þe say.

---

Blanc maungere of fysshe.

Take a pownde of ryse and sethe hom wele,
 Tyl þat þay brostene; and lete hom kele.
 Mylke of almondes perto þou cast,
 þo tenche or lampray do to on last;
 Welle alle togeder, as I þe kenne,
 And messe hit forthe before godde men.

---

Mortrews of fysshe.

Take þo kelkes<sup>1</sup> of fysshe anon,
 And þo lyver of þo fysshe, sethe hom alon;
 Pen take brede and peper and ale,
 And temper þo brothe fulle welle þou schalle,
 And welle hit togeder and serve hit penne,
 And set in sale<sup>2</sup> before good mene.

---

For to make rose dalmoyne.

Take whyte pese and wasshe hom wele,
 Tylle þat þey hulle, sethe yche adele,
 And bene clene of pam, pen schalle þou caste
 In to þo pot and cover in hast;
 And loke no brethe per passe oute,
 But boyle hom wele with owtyn dowte;
 Of almondre mylke þou kest perto,
 Of floure of ryse and salt also;

<sup>1</sup> roe or milt.<sup>2</sup> hall.