

Chekyns in Cawdel.

In brothe þou boyle þy chekyns gode;
 Take ȝolkes of eyren, Syr, for po rode,
 Alye hom up with brothe forsayde;
 Take powder gynger, abrayde,
 And sugur, and rew, and safron clere,
 And salt, and set hit over po fyre;
 With owtyn boylyng messe hit forthe penne;
 þy chekyns hole take, I pe kenne,
 Of<sup>1</sup> pay be brokyn, on dysshe hom lay,
 Helde<sup>2</sup> hom pe sewe, as I pe say.

---

For to boyle fesawantes and pertryks.

Take goode brothe, perin þou pyt
 By fesauntes and þy pertryks, pat men may wyt.
 Do perto ale, floure, peper fre,
 Of hole canel, good quantité;
 And let alle sethe perwyth fulle wele,
 And messe hit forthe, Syr, at pe mele.
 Powder dowce perin þou cast,
 When hit [is] servyd on pe last.

---

Roo in a Sewe.

Take po roo, pyke hit clene forthy;
 Boyle hit þou shalt and after hit drye;
 Hew hit on gobettis, pat ben smalle,
 Do hit in pot withalle;
 Kest wyn perto, if þou do ryȝt,
 Take persole and sawge and ysope bryȝt,
 Wasshe hom and hew hom wondur smalle,
 And do perto hit þou schalle,
 Coloure hit with blode or sawnders hors<sup>3</sup>.

---

<sup>1</sup> Yf?<sup>2</sup> pour over.<sup>3</sup> rough.