

on, they say, of the Flower of Malt, Yeast and Whites of Eggs, a Nostrum made and sold only by two or three in those Parts, but the Wort is brewed and the Ale vend- ed by many of the Publicans, which is drank while it is fermenting in Earthen Steens, in such a thick manner as resem- bles butter'd Ale, and sold for Twopence Halfpenny the full Quart. It is often pre- scribed by Physicians to be drank by wet Nurses for the encrease of their Milk, and also as a prevalent Medicine for the Co- lick and Gravel. But the Dover and Chatham People won't drink their Butt- Beer, unless it is Aged, fine and strong.

In my Brewhouse at London, the Yeast at once was put into the Tun to work the Stout Beer and Ale with, as not hav- ing the Conveniency of doing otherwise, by reason the After-worts of small Beer comes into the same Backs or Coolers where the strong Worts had just been, by this means, and the shortness of time we have to ferment our strong Drinks, we cannot make Reserves of cold Worts to mix with and check the too forward working of those Liquors, for there we brewed three times a Week through-
