

Mault's come down

from Deuteromelia 1609

Thomas Ravenscroft

1 Mault's come downe, mault's come downe from an old An - gell to a French crown, There's

2 neu - er a maide in all this towne, but well she knows that mault's come downe

3 The great-est drunk-ards in this Tow - ne, are ve-ry glad that mault's come down

The image shows a three-part musical score for the song 'Mault's come down'. It is written in 6/4 time and G major. The first part (soprano) has a melodic line with lyrics: 'Mault's come downe, mault's come downe from an old An - gell to a French crown, There's'. The second part (alto) has a more rhythmic line with lyrics: 'neu - er a maide in all this towne, but well she knows that mault's come downe'. The third part (bass) has a simple harmonic line with lyrics: 'The great-est drunk-ards in this Tow - ne, are ve-ry glad that mault's come down'. The score is set in a single system with three staves.
