

Of Enamouring
The Mistris of her Seruant

Edward Pearce
A Briefe Discourse, 1614, no. 15

TREBLE.

MEDIVS.

TENOR.

BASIS.

Loue for such a cherry lip, &c.

5
Loue for such a cher - ry lip, would be glad to pawne his Ar - rowes,

10
Ve - nus heere to take a sip, would sell her Doues and teeme of 15

Spar - rowes, but shee shall not so, hey no no ny no ny no,

Of Enamouring

19

none but I this lip must owe, hey no - ny no - ny no - ny, hey no - ny

23

no - ny no - ny no - ny no - ny, hey no - ny no - ny no - ny no - ny no - ny no.

Did Ioue see this wanton eye,
Ganymed should wayte no longer:
Phebe heere one night to lye,
 would change her face, and looke much younger.
 but shee shall not see,
 hey no ny, no ny no.
 none but I this lip must owe
 hey no ny, no ny no.

Critical notes:

Bar No.	Part	Note No.	Comment
11	Tenor	1	dot missing in orig.
13	Tenor	1	note missing in orig.