A Hawkes-vp, for a Hunts vp

Thomas Ravenscroft
A Briefe Discourse, 1614, no. 3

TREBLE.

Awake

MEDIVS.

A - wake, a -

TENOR.

Awake, awake

BASIS

Awake

wake, the day doth break, our Spanyels coup - le them: our Hawkes shall flye lowe, meane, or high, and trusse it, and trusse it, and trusse it, and trusse it, and

Chor:

hey trol - y lol - ly ly lo ly lo, hey tro - ly ly lo ly ly lo ly trusse it if they can, hey trol - y lol - ly ly lo ly lo, hey tro - ly ly lo ly ly lo ly

hey trol - y lol-ly ly lol - ly lo hey, trol - y lol - ly ly lol-ly

hey trol - y lo ly lo ly lo, hey trol - y lo ly

Then rise, arise
For Phœbus dies
(in golde) the dawne of day,

And Coveyes lye in Fields hard by,
then Sing we care away.

Chor: Hey trolly, lolly, then sing we care away.

Critical notes:

Bar No.	Part	Note No.	Comment
8	Treble	1	Semiminima (crotchet) g not in the source
29	Treble	1	Longa in the source
29	Tenor	1	Longa in the source
29	Basis	1	Longa in the source

Note values have been halved in the second section.

There are quite a few rather freely treated dissonances in A Hawkes-vp, for a Hunts vp justified - I think - by the imitations of hunting horns, see for instance bar 11 and 12.
