Then in p. 303 he mentions how (about y year of christ. 700. in y reign of Cadwaladr, at a meeting of y matters of music.) a musician ~~played~~ played before them in a key called Isgydwel or y Bragad Dannau, which displeased ym much.
because it came out of y sound of Pibau Morfydd, i.e.
Morfydd's Pipes (a piece of musci so called.) and it was then ordered under great penalties, whenever he came before learned men. ~~that~~ he should play Mwynen Gyw--nedd which was first Published by ^{King} Cadwaladr's ~~then~~ ~~some~~ musicians; ~~as~~

Mwynen
Gwynedd.
