

falt. & do it ī a diſhe holke<sup>s</sup> in þ<sup>e</sup> bothom, and let it out wiþ þy fing<sup>r</sup> queynche<sup>t</sup> ī a chowfer<sup>u</sup> wiþ oile. & frye it wel. and whan it is ynow<sup>z</sup>: take it out and caſt þ<sup>o</sup> sug<sup>r</sup> &c.

For to make Pomē Dorryle<sup>x</sup> and oþē þyng<sup>o</sup>. <sup>xx.</sup> VIII.XIIII.

Take þ<sup>e</sup> lire of Pork rawe. and grynde it ſmale. medle it up wiþ powdre fort, ſafroñ, and falt, and do þ<sup>o</sup> Raiſoñs of Corañce, make ball<sup>o</sup> þ<sup>o</sup>f. and wete it wele ī white of áyren. & do it to ſeeþ ī boillyg waſ. take hem up and put hem on a ſpyt. roſt hē wel and take þ<sup>e</sup>fel ygronde and wryng it up with ayren & a þty of flo. and laterne<sup>y</sup> abonte þ<sup>e</sup> ſpyt. And if þ<sup>e</sup> wilt, take for þ<sup>e</sup>fel ſafroñ, and ſūe it forth.

<sup>s</sup> holke. Qu. hollow.

<sup>t</sup> queynche. an queyntlich, as N<sup>o</sup> 162.

<sup>u</sup> Chowfer. chaffing diſh, as N<sup>o</sup> 162.

<sup>x</sup> Pomē dorryle. Contents, þō dorryes, rectè, for MS. Ed. 42, has Pommedorry; and ſee N<sup>o</sup> 177. So named from the balls and the gilding. “Pommes dorées, golden apples.” Cotgrave. Pom-dorroye. MS. Ed. 58; but vide Dorry in Gloſſ.

<sup>y</sup>erne. Qu.