

For Tuskyne.

Take raw porke and hew hit smalle,
 And grynde in a mortar; temper hit pou schalle
 With swongen egges, but not to pynne;
 In gryndyng, put powder of peper withinne,
 Penne þis flessch take up in py honde,
 And rolle hit on balles, I undurstonde,
 In gretnes of crabbes; I harde say
 In boylande water pou kast hom may.
 To harden þen take hom oute to cole,
 And play fresshe brothe fayre and wele;
 Per in cast persoley, ysop, saveray,
 Þat smalle is haked by any way.
 Alye hit with flour or brede for py,
 Coloure hit with safroun for þe maystré;
 Cast powder of peper and clawes per to,
 And take py balles or pou more do,
 And put per in; boyle alle in fere
 And serve hit forthe for tuskyne dere.

For blaunchyd porray.

Take thykke mylke of almondes dere
 And heke¹ hedes pou take with stalk in fere,
 Þat is in peses pou stryke;
 Put alle in pot, alye hit ilyke
 With a lytel floure, and serve hit þenne
 Wele sopun, in sale, before gode menne.

Porry of white pese.

Take white pese and wasshe hom wele;
 Put hom in pot, so have pou cele,
 With water; and ere þo fyrst boylyng
 Pou katche hom doune with oute lesyng;

¹ leke?